(A).The mission of physical education is to provide students with the knowledge, skills and opportunity to be a physically educated person. The students will be able to demonstrate competence in many different forms of physical activity using concepts of body awareness, space awareness, effort and relationships. They will understand that wellness involves more than being physically fit and will understand that physical activity provides the opportunity for enjoyment, self-expression and communication and that it can lead to multi-cultural and international understanding. The students will cherish the feelings that result from regular participation in physical activity and will appreciate the relationships with others. They will respect the role that regular physical activity plays in the pursuit of lifelong health and well-being. 30 %

(B).In sports, a coach is an individual involved in the direction and instruction of the on-field operations of an athletic team or of individual athletes. A coach is a person who supports athletes to achieve their goals, with goal setting and encouragement. Coaching entails the application of sport tactics and strategies during the game or contest itself, and usually entails substitution of players and other such actions as needed. Most coaches are former participants in the sports in which they are involved. A coach, particularly in a major operation, is traditionally aided in his efforts by one or more assistants known as the coaching staff. The coach's leadership is often cited, rightly or wrongly, as one of the prime or even the prime ingredient in successful efforts by the athletes under his or her direction. 30 %
